The B-Street Band kicked off Peekskill Celebration's Riverfront Concert Series on Wednesday, July 5 performing powerful Springsteen favorites and dance music for nearly 700 guests. The B-Street Band members include: Willie Forte (vocals, keyboards), Glen Stuart (lead vocals, guitar, congas), Bob Chipak (drums), Steve Baranian (vocals, lead guitar), Dave Brown (bass guitar), Jim Casale (multiple sax's, flute, vocals), John Colyer (lights), and Bob Clarke (sound).

The audience indulged in the melodic folk rock sounds of spotlight artist, Peter Spink. Bill Turner and Blue Smoke will perform on July 12 between 6:00p.m.and 9:00pm at Riverfront Green Park in Peekskill, NY also featuring Hudson Valley's spotlight artist, A Little Bit of This & That.

More upcoming concerts include:

- ? July 19 ? Professor Louie and the Crowmatics with the ROA Horns and Spotlight artist: Dana Edelman
- ? July 26 ? Tom Chapin and Friends with Spotlight artist: Marc VonEm

Featuring some of the best regional and national performers, the Riverfront Concert Series will showcase one main act and one of Hudson Valley's great entertainers every Wednesday night in July. The outdoor concerts lead up to the largest festival in the Hudson Valley. Now in its 10th year, the annual Peekskill Celebration attracts over 30,000 people from all over the greater New York area. A celebration of family, dragon boats, music, food, fireworks, and crafts starts August 4 at 6:00pm featuring Buckwheat Zydeco on the main stage and continues throughout the entire weekend. Venues include the natural beauty of Riverfront Green, Charles Point Park, and historic Downtown Peekskill.
